Camburg's Richard Blunk wins BITD's Henderson Desert Classic!

Huntington Beach, CA – Coming into the last race of the season with Casey Folk's new gran prix race format, Team TrailReady went out on a high note taking the win in Class 7200 easily over the competition.

Richard set a fast pace from the start and led the entire race. He was battling with various Trick Trucks all day long and was the only 7200 truck to complete 4 laps with all others completing 3 or less. With taking the win, Richard was able to finish the year 6th in points in a highly competitive class. With this win as a stepping stone, Team TrailReady is looking forward to the 2009 BITD Parker 425 race.

Richard's Ford Ranger utilizes Camburg's un-equal length 4.0 custom i-beams and heim joint radius arms.
